

Fairview Haven will be publishing a second edition cookbook with new recipes in honor of our golden anniversary in 2012.

We are collecting recipes from past and present residents, family members of residents, Fairview Haven employees and volunteers, as well as attendees of our supporting Apostolic Christian Churches (Cissna Park, Fairbury and Forrest). We would like all-new recipes. We will also consider your suggestions for recipes in the current cookbook to be re-printed as 'classic' recipes.

DEADLINE FOR COLLECTING RECIPES: MARCH 1, 2012

We are also accepting suggestions for the cookbook title.

DEADLINE FOR TITLE SUGGESTIONS: FEBRUARY 1, 2012

THE PERSON WHO SUGGESTS THE WINNING TITLE WILL RECEIVE A FREE COOKBOOK!

*For more information, see January/February 2011 News From The Haven article.
See instructions on the back of this sheet for submissions.*

The cookbook committee has met and plans are underway for the Fairview Haven Retirement Community 50th anniversary cookbook.

We need your participation! We are collecting recipes from: past and present residents, family members of residents, Fairview Haven employees and volunteers, and those who attend our supporting Apostolic Christian Churches of Cissna Park, Fairbury, or Forrest.

We would like all-new recipes; however, we will consider any favorites from the current Fairview Haven cookbook as “classic” recipes. If you would like to suggest a “classic” recipe, please submit a copy of the recipe and write a note as to why you would like to have it reprinted. Special recipe categories that have been suggested (along with the typical categories) are: children’s and diabetic recipes.

We prefer the recipes to be emailed to: fairviewhaven1@gmail.com, if possible. Or you may type or write your recipes and send them to: Fairview Haven Cookbook, Attn: Rhonda Rudin, 605 N Fourth St., Fairbury, IL 61739. (See enclosed form in this newsletter.) There is also a collection box in the Fairview Haven living room where you can drop off recipes.

IMPORTANT NOTE: Please make sure to proofread each recipe for accuracy before submitting!

Along with your recipes, please submit your relationship to Fairview Haven (i.e. former resident or current family member). Also, if there is a story connected to the recipe, please attach that. For example, if you are submitting Grandma’s recipe and Grandma formerly lived at Fairview Haven, we would like to know that. Any interesting story connected with Fairview Haven will be considered. We would like this cookbook to be an “album of memories” of the past 50 years, as well as a recipe book.

Our goal is to have the cookbook printed and ready for distribution by Fairview Haven’s official 50th anniversary — September 2012. In order to meet this goal, we will need all recipes turned in BY MARCH 1, 2012.

We still need suggestions for a cookbook title. Please send your suggestions to fairviewhaven1@gmail.com. The person who suggests the winning title will receive a FREE cookbook!

For more information, you may contact Rhonda Rudin (email: rrudin@fairviewhaven.org or 815-692-2572 ext. 207 [M-W-Th-F]).

We prefer recipes to be submitted by email to:
fairviewhaven1@gmail.com

Please use form below as a guideline for email submission. Or, if unable to submit by email, you may submit on this form. Make copies as needed. Mail to: Fairview Haven Cookbook, 605 N. Fourth, Fairbury, IL 61739 or drop in collection box in Fairview Haven Living Room.
